

Walter R. Thompson, editor and proprietor of the Mountaineer, of this place, was arrested on Thursday by United States Marshal John W. Walker and taken to the jail at Pittsburgh, where he is held in the sum of $300 for his appearance at court on the first Monday of next month to answer a charge of sending through the mails a letter of his paper containing a lottery advertisement.

There are two registers of voters made annually in this state, one in May and the other in December. Under the law registers must commence work for the second on the first Monday of December, and complete their work on or before December 10th. One copy must be placed at the polling place, and the register must be at the election house with the original on December 10th, and 20. On the 21st the original and a copy must be returned to the county commissioners' office. The register must be made in triplicate.

A singular accident caused the destruction by fire of the barn of Hon. John M. Cresswell, at Cresswell Station, near Hollidaysburg, on Saturday last. While the horse-power threshing was in operation on the barn floor, a small fire came wedged in the machinery and the consequent friction set fire to the material in the threshing. The thousands of floating particles of straw carried the flames to every part of the barn. The barn and its contents, except the horses, were destroyed. The loss is about $1,500 with no insurance.

Clinton J. Samuels, of Nineveh, Westmoreland county, was instantly killed on Saturday evening in front of the gentleman's waiting room at the Pennsylvania railroad depot at Johnstown. He was waiting to board the caboose of an east-bound freight train that was passing, and was struck by the Johnstown Accommodation, the engineer not being able to see him in the darkness of a fog. After the cars had gone by he was struck by the caboose. The unfortunate man was born and raised in Shenandoah, Va., and has been a resident of Nineveh for two years.

A ferret which was kept in the store of a merchant of Glen Campbell, Indiana, for the purpose of killing rats, almost placed the life of the merchant in jeopardy, a few days since. Bennett, the ferret, was in the store, and the merchant was sleeping off his drink in the warehouse of the store. About an hour after the man entered the store, the ferret, which had been released, began to chew at the merchant's neck. One of his ears was almost eaten off by the little blood-thirsty animal, and had the discovery been made a few minutes later, the jugular vein would doubtless have been severed.

Wm. Winslow's yoke of oxen was in town on Monday. It will be remembered by many of our readers that William changed the working position of his oxen when the Democratic party gained possession of the government, by hitching the oxen to the front wheels of his wagon. He also placed the front wheels of his wagon on hind axle and vice versa, and declared he would use his team in this way until the Republican party gets hold of the reins of government again. Some people thought of choice oxen, but never since the result in 1896 was announced his team does duty left-handed and hind-end foremost. —Coalport Standard.

Miss Josephine Morgan, daughter of Mr. John Morgan, of this place, died at the home of her aunt, Mrs. R. E. Jones, on Wednesday night after a long illness from consumption. Miss Morgan was an amiable and accomplished young lady, beloved by all who knew her, and her early death is the cause of much sorrow. Her sister, Miss Birdie, died from the same disease about two years ago. She is survived by her father, Mr. John Morgan, of Ebensburg, and by one brother, Mr. John Morgan, of Cambria township. Her funeral will take place this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the house, the services being conducted by the Rev. Bowman, pastor of the Presbyterian church, of which Miss Morgan was a member. The interment will be in Lloyd's cemetery.

Taken to Prison.
On Tuesday United States Marshal J. W. Walker arrested John Troxel, late postmaster at Portage, and took him to Altoona for a hearing before Commissioner Grafius, charged with the embezzlement of the funds of the postoffice to the amount of $250.

United States Assistant District Attorney Griffith was present to conduct the case for the government. Mr. Troxel was ready to acknowledge his guilt and wanted to fix the matter up, but he could not give sufficient security to the government that he would do so.

He is an old soldier drawing a pension and offered two-thirds of this to his bondsmen, who would make up the deficiency. They, however, refused to do this, and Commissioner Grafius bound the defendant under for United States district court in the sum of $1,000. On Wednesday evening Deputy Marshal Clark took Troxel to Pittsburgh, where he will await his trial in prison.

They are Still at Work.
Two crews of civil engineers are at work on the Rankins and adjoining farms, in Montgomery township. Last week they were working within a stone-throw of each other and the men are as much as oysters. It is only known that one corps are in the employ of the Pennsylvania and the other in the pay of the Philadelphia & Pittsburgh. Much activity is shown in railroad circles in the eastern part of the county, and the fact that the engineers are not working for their health would indicate that some persons are putting up a lot of money. We predict that before 30 days more, or perhaps two months will be in course of construction at that end of the county. —Indiana Messenger.

Melvin was under bail to appear at court to answer a charge of assault and battery on Mrs. Charles Melvin, who was preferred by Mrs. Charles Melvin, his bondsman. John Grogin, of Johnstown, is looking for him.

Railroad News.
The location of the line of the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh railroad from McHaffey to McGee's Mills has been determined. The engineers are now working down the west side of the Allegheny river in the vicinity of Hannanville. Engineers have been working on the line since last spring from McHaffey and Pittsburgh. The route on which the engineers are now working starts at McHaffey, near the headwaters of the west branch of the Susquehanna river, and follows that stream into Indiana county. Crossing the divide between Glen Campbell to Rochester Mills, at the headwaters of the Shenandoah, it follows the course of that stream to the Allegheny river, which is crossed by a bridge above the grade of the Allegheny valley, crossing the West Penn at Allegheny Junction, above Freeport, and paralleling that road down to the vicinity of Ross Grove, where it again crosses the river. A terminal road was thence some three miles to carry the new line back of Pittsburgh and around Glenwood, where it will cross the Monongahela to a connection with the Pittsburgh and Erie Lake Erie system.

President S. J. M. McCall, of the Clearfield, Conemaugh and West Penn railroad, announces that the directors will meet at Harrisburg shortly and let a contract for building that portion of the line extending from Porter's and a connection with the Beech Creek in Clearfield county to Ironona, thirty-two miles to the north, which is along the Clearfield creek. At Ironona a 500-foot trestle will likely be constructed over the Pennsylvania and North-western. The engineers will now proceed with the final location of the road from Ironona to Johnstown, a distance of about forty-five miles. This will be the most difficult portion of the line to construct. A tunnel of about 800 feet may be bored through the ridge dividing the Muddy run and Blacklick creek.

A Fraud.
The wholesale commission house of Kirkpatrick & Johnson, Pittsburgh, whose advertisement appeared for several weeks in the Freeman, was closed on Monday last week on a landlord's warrant for rent. Frank Johnson was the only member of the firm known in Pittsburgh.

The police allege that Johnson is a fraud. They claim he had agents appointed all over the county to send him goods to sell. He usually selected responsible persons as his agents. He was sent large consignments of produce for which it is said he never paid. It is supposed he owes the farmers in the neighborhood of $10,000. He had been operating in Pittsburgh for two months. He was a complete stranger. He came from Chicago.

Johnson took his trunks from his boarding house last Sunday and left with his wife, saying that he was going on a visit. There were about twelve clerks employed. Cashier George Prescott had a letter from Johnson, dated at Greensburg, on Sunday, saying he was on a buying tour and would ship goods. The receipts of the firm for stuff sold the day before Thanksgiving are said to have aggregated $10,000 and the close prices at which sales were made at all times, made each day's receipts large. The firm is said to have held off creditors by sending out unsigned checks, which occasioned delay.
